The university grading system in Italy

The Italian university grading system for exams is based on a 30-point scale (18 and above is considered passing). A 110-point scale is used to grade the final dissertation (66 is the minimum grade necessary to graduate).

The Cum Laude is equivalent to the mention "with honours" and is assigned to praise outstanding students for each exam and/or upon completion of their university degree.

Attendance of lessons

Students do not have to enroll for courses to attend lectures. Once lessons begin, just go to the lecture hall and attend the lesson.

Attendance is usually not mandatory (but highly suggested in any case)

Some Professors may ask you to sign an attendance sheet to keep track of the students who attend lessons regularly. Moreover, the course load may vary slightly depending on whether or not you attend the lessons. Some professors may ask students who do not attend lessons to integrate their course work with an extra or a different textbook to balance the workload for all students. Textbook requirements and related information for each course are listed on each Professor personal page.

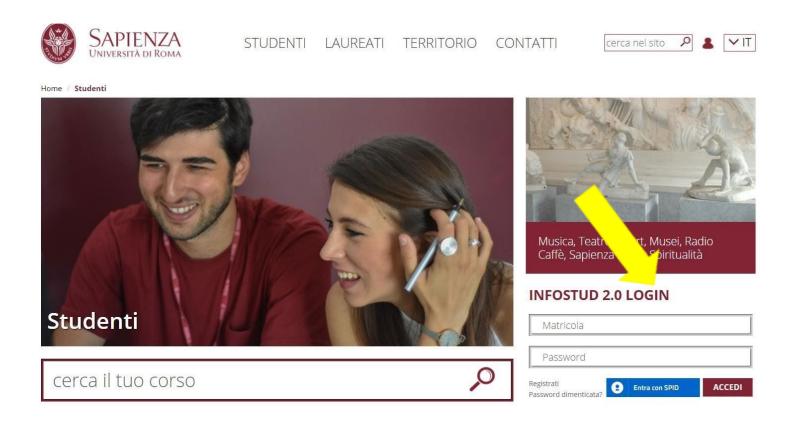

InfoStud is an IT tool adopted by Sapienza, created for students in order to simplify a wide range of operations related to their status. Erasmus students use it to book exams, monitor the verbalizations of the marks, print certificates

INFOSTUD 2.0 is accessible from the "STUDENTS" section of the Sapienza website.

As an Erasmus student, you can only use the system to enroll for exams: InfoStud is not needed to subscribe to courses. You will not see any official career connected with your profile, because you are an exchange student.

Professors publish the exam dates a couple of months before the exam session starts.

In order to take exams, you must book on-line via the InfoStud student portal. You can book an exam from one month to one week before the exam date. Exam dates valid for Erasmus students are in January, February, June & July.

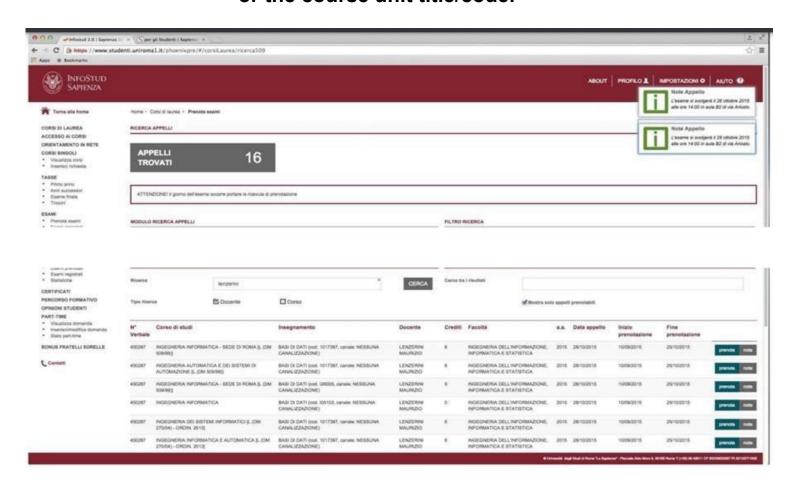

Most exams are oral, although some may also have a written part.

Your Professor will provide further information on this.

click on PRENOTA ESAMI (book exams)

You can search the exam session by inserting the professor's surname or the course unit title/code.

Once the exam is booked, remember to print your receipt, as you will need to present it and have it signed by your Professor.

Remember to hold on to it as final proof of your exam.

The following services are available:

- · Stampa: to print the receipt of the exam
- · Cancella: to erase the exam enrolment
- Dettaglio: in case there are further communications by the Professor
- · Scrivi al docente: if you wish to contact the Professor
